

Question 1: What is functionalism?

- a. A theory of regionalism
- b. A theory of economics
- c. A theory of politics
- d. A theory of sociology

Question 2: What is the key explanation of functionalist regionalism?

- a. Spillover
- b. Functionalism
- c. Regionalism
- d. Supranational institutions

Question 3: What are the two types of spillover?

- a. Functional spillover
- b. Political spillover
- c. Economic spillover
- d. Social spillover

Question 4: What is the end result of functionalist regionalism?

- a. A shift in loyalties from nationalism towards regionalism
- b. The formation of supranational institutions
- c. The diminishing role of the nation-state
- d. All of the above

Question 5: What is the most effective means of solving common problems?

- a. Functionalism
- b. Regionalism
- c. Supranational institutions
- d. Spillover

Answer Key

- Question 1: A theory of regionalism
- Question 2: Spillover
- Question 3: Functional spillover, Political spillover
- Question 4: All of the above
- Question 5: Regionalism